CONCIERGE SERVICE

A highly personalised service tailored to your individual needs. Unlimited introductions from within and outside our database. Personal guidance and feedback from professional connectors. Concierge Service is $180 AUD for two months and is limited to a few members at a time.

This service is highly popular with time poor professionals and those wanting an elite service. For further details about Concierge Service call the office on 0422 607 678 or send an email to support@jconnect.org.au.

PLATINUM MEMBERSHIP

A more personalised service. Everything that's included in gold membership with the following additions: select two matchmakers, no limit on the number of matches, personal matchmaker will review and rework profile and photos if requested, given priority to meet suitable new members, when matched with a basic member, the basic member doesn't need to pay to accept.

GOLD MEMBERSHIP

Answer our questionnaire and your profile goes into our worldwide database. This enables all Jconnect connectors to send you matches.

You choose your own personal connector who is dedicated to finding you compatible matches. Your personal connector will meet with you to discuss ways to maximise your dating experience. Jconnect believes through meeting you face-to-face we are better able to match you. Personalised service and getting to know you is the key to making successful matches. Your connector can search for potential matches specifically for you, based on your personal criteria.

You may 'Accept', 'Decline' or 'Hold' potential matches.

Unlimited chats with connectors (Initiate or respond to Connector chats). Building a relationship with your connector will allow them to understand your needs and wants so that they can send you the best matches.

All Gold members are prioritised before Basic members as a potential match for a member.

FREE LIMITED MEMBERSHIP *

This service is FREE

Answer our questionnaire and your profile goes into our Worldwide database in a limited capacity. Meet with an admissions interviewer before receiving any matches.

You do not have a personal connector, and nobody will be searching for matches for you on a regular basis so please understand you will not hear from us unless we have a potential match for you. Connectors can suggest a match to you if you show up as a potential match for another member. You can accept this match for free.

At this time Limited membership is offered to members in our focus demographic*

BASIC MEMBERSHIP

This service is free to join but you need to upgrade (pay to accept a match)

Answer our questionnaire and your profile goes into our Worldwide database in a limited capacity. Meet with an admissions interviewer before receiving any matches.

You do not have a personal connector, and nobody will be searching for matches for you on a regular basis so please understand you will not hear from us unless we have a potential match for you. Connectors can suggest a match to you if you show up as a potential match for another member. You can accept this match by upgrading for one month at a cost of US$14.95.

THE FINE PRINT

All memberships are subject to change. If you have questions, please contact support@jconnect.org.au

We are very excited to be partnered with a US based company*. This affiliation makes us part of the biggest global matchmaking service for Jewish singles. We will be using the WAM software and billing system and that's why we are quoting our monthly membership fees in US$. The fee will be converted based on the exchange rate at the time of the transaction and shown on your credit card statement in Australian dollars.

We remain a fully Australian based community organisation with Australian connectors and a local office.
